IS THE THING STOPPED!

Does the resolution against "the third term, passed by the House of Representatives on Wednesday, smother the ambition of Gen. GRANT to be elected President for a third time?

Of course this resolution hits a blow at GRANT, and he cannot help feeling it. The fact also that the minority on his side was so contemptible in number renders the blow more unpleasant; but it will not of itself put an end to his design to be President after March 4, 1877.

The platform on which GRANT is running for reelection, is that of hostility to the power of the Catholic Church. This is a new platform, It was first part put forward to his Des Moins speech, and it is repeated with elaboration and urgency in his message. The House of Representatives was elected before this platform was known; and Gen. GRANT can very well reason that if his new issue has been fairly before the people, the House would have been of a very differ ent composition; so that, instead of condemning his third term scheme, they would have approved it. He will therefore, go on instead of abandoning his de-sign, and he will develop it still futher. He means to try it, and see whether the anti-Catholic issue is not strong enough to secure for him the desired third term Besides he still holds the cards of a war with Spain or with Mexico; and he is too experienced a gambler to retire from the game, before the hand is finished.

No doubt his anti-Catholic doctrine embodies the sentiment of a great many people. Not only Methodists, but other classes of men, sympathize with the purpose GRANT has avowed. We have not yet seen the last of his third-term ambition.-N. Y. Sun.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Buyers were scarce. One dealer emphatically asserts that there are buyers in the market to day who will not pay more for stock than will barely save them from being arrested for stealing them. On the other hand shippers aver that had their cattle been stolen before they left home they would be better off to day. Reports from Philadelphia and New York are bad for all classes of cattle, save extra choice show cattle. In a word, the year of 1870 is about closing on the dullest market of the year, We quote as follows:

CATTLE. Extra, 1,400 to 1,500 lbs Good, 1,200 to 1,300 lbs Common to fair, 1,200 to 1,300 lbs Good, 1,100 to 1,200 lbs Good to choice feeders Fair feeders Stockers

The bottom of the hog market has been knocked clear out, and prices are ruling to-day fully 50c per cwt. lower than last Saturday. It is a singular fact that hogs are being sold to-day at about the same figures they brought one year ago. It will be seen that the 8's have dropped to 7's, and even down among the 6's. we quote: Philadelphias Yorkers, Rougus 5 00@6 00

Shippers complained of losing money this week. There are quite a number of choice sheep in the pens unsold, which cannot be shoved off for what they cost at home; and the general impression seems to be that prices have not yet touched bottom. That the market is dull and and prices low will be seen from the sales given below. We quote as follows:

Fair, 75 to 80 fbs CANTON GRAIN MARKET.

WHEAT—The market is quiet but little coming in the demand not being very large. The prices ranging from $1.29 to $1.25 per bush for old wheat New Wheat, $1.15 to $1.20.

OATS—Quiet, prices ranging from 30c to 33c.
CORN—In local demand; buyers are paying from 30 to 40c.

Rys—Quiet at 65c per bush.
HAY—Fer ton $19.00 to $15.00.
